

Corporate Manslaughter Training Course

Course Features

- Authoritative - written by a former barrister
- Case study
- Sector specific versions:
 - Construction
 - Public sector housing
 - Nursery and early years
 - Working overseas
- Available for delivery at your workplace
- Transparent pricing; no hidden extras

Is this course for you?

Yes! The course is suitable for anyone with an interest in the implications of the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007, especially senior managers.

Are you a safety practitioner? If so, you'll benefit from increased knowledge and a chance to claim CPD points.

What you will learn

- relevant duties in health and safety law
- sentencing guidelines and how they are used
- gross negligence manslaughter
- the tests for corporate manslaughter
- outcome of recent cases
- factors for the jury to consider
- measures to minimise the risk of prosecution.

What our delegates said...

“Very interesting and eye opening”

“The entire content was invaluable...”

“Succinct and informative”

“Trainer kept a good pace and made it really interesting”

“All of it was useful”

“Kept us interested all the time, balanced between theory and examples”

To book, or to find out more, simply email us with your requirements

info@griffinsafetytraining.co.uk